'DON'T ALWAYS BELIEVE IN WHAT YOUR DOCTORS SAY. DO OWN RESEARCH, STUDY'

A dermatologist said that patients should not always believe what their doctors say unless studies and research have been made on their prescribed medicines.

"Ang doktor kasi kahit magaling, puwede ring magkamali," Dra. Grace Carole Beltran, said. A dermatologist, aesthetic surgeon and a pathology dermatologist, she was the guest in the most recent Media Health Forum of Bauertek Corporation.

She stressed that aside from the doctor's advice and promotion of medical products, it is also important for patients to do their own study and research.

"Hindi naman porke't sinabi ng doctor, siguradong tama eh. Kailangan pag-aralan mo rin," Beltran explained.

She said that taking fake medicines has many side effects and patients should take extra care.

Beltran disclosed that to date, medical cannabis or marijuana, in which its legalization for its use in the Philippines, is being pushed at the Senate and House of Representatives, is also being used by dermatologists.

DOST Batangas joins the National Simultaneous Earthquake Drill (NSED)

The DOST Batangas staff pulled off the “Duck, Cover and Hold” exercise under their office tables and practiced evacuation of the office in an orderly manner.

As part of the exercise, the DOST Batangas Public Service Continuity Plan (PSCP) was activated. The PSCP ensures that the critical services of DOST Batangas will be restored after a disaster strikes.

The chain of command and practice drills in which the office's Emergency Response Team (ERT) was called upon are both included in the plan. They are tasked with treating wounds and conducting a headcount of evacuated employees. A recovery team was then assembled to evaluate the office building's damages.

The employees are instructed to go back to their assigned positions once it has been determined that the office is secure.

The drills serve as evidence of DOST Batangas' ongoing disaster readiness and efficient disaster response, which are designed to maintain business continuity even in the event of a disaster.

A more coherent act vs inflation

Just when we thought we had slain inflation in the Philippines, this monster is once more rearing its ugly head in other countries around the world.

Indeed, we are already starting to feel the pinch of higher prices once again via the rising cost of rice, which is a staple food of Filipinos, and petroleum on which local industries depend.

Yet, this reversal of the inflation downtrend is not something that has happened overnight. The cost of rice has been creeping up for several months now, while the prices of gasoline and diesel have been on the uptrend for the last 10 weeks.

There is no way our policymakers can claim to have been caught flatfooted by this phenomenon as the price increases have not come in a single sharp spike, but through a long-drawn-out upward trek that is like a noose slowly tightening around the collective necks of our poor citizens.

Instead, it is the government's textbook-defying response to this brewing crisis that has caught Filipinos flatfooted, as it has gone against every rational course of action that is normally prescribed as a solution in situations like this.

No less than Finance Secretary Benjamin Diokno, the head of President Marcos' economic team, admitted that he and his Cabinet colleagues were shocked by the price controls ordered by the Chief Executive last month.

The sad thing about this situation—of the proverbial right hand of government being unaware of what its left hand is doing—is that Mr. Marcos himself issued an executive order just last May creating a high-powered group of department heads meant precisely to craft a coordinated policy response to the brewing inflation crisis.

Under Executive Order No. 28 issued in May this year, the President created the Inter-Agency Committee on Inflation and Market Outlook (IAC-IMO) as an advisory body to the Economic Development Group to "directly address inflation," particularly on prices of key commodities like food and energy.

Granted that little has been heard from this IAC-IMO, which includes the heads of several key departments, by way of concrete anti-inflation moves over its three-month lifespan to date but crafting policies to address deeply rooted structural problems takes time. And if the powers that be had gotten impatient for solutions in the interim, this is definitely no excuse to impose moves that go against every economic tenet there is, most notably the very basic law of supply and demand.

But what's done is done, and the Marcos administration now has to focus on delivering concrete solutions to this brewing crisis going forward.

The first step would be to repeal EO 39, which imposed mandated price ceilings on rice, as soon as possible because there are already anecdotal reports emerging of retailers rationing the rice they sell to consumers at the prescribed price caps in an effort to limit their losses. Failing to roll this order back will result in retailers stopping the sale of these commodities altogether, thereby pushing prices up further.

The next step is to convene all the collective economic and political minds of the administration and decide on a single, coherent policy (in consultation with all key stakeholders from the private and the agriculture sectors, of course) in order to mitigate inflationary effects.

The best policy would be to temporarily cut import tariffs on rice (down to zero, if necessary) until prices stabilize at the levels deemed appropriate by government. It will be unpopular with farmers, but the pain will be temporary.

In the long run, government should focus on delivering better technical assistance to the farm sector to improve rice yields and pushing for structural reforms in the logistics chain where supply bottlenecks often occur.

Most importantly, his entire official family and Cabinet must formulate policies in unison to solve these daunting challenges.

Two millennia ago, the Bible may have admonished the faithful to not let the left hand know what the right hand is doing in the context of helping the poor.

But in the context of modern day economics, it is critical not only for both the official policy side and unofficial influential side of the Marcos administration to be aware of each other's moves but also to act in unison to address key challenges.

In the case of our reemerging inflation problem, government must get its act together to solve the same problem, rather than the left hand being left to its own devices, resulting in the unraveling of the work that the right hand is doing.

The President has a surfeit of political capital thanks to his 31-million-strong mandate from the Filipino people. As such, he must spend this capital making difficult decisions like hewing closely to established economic principles—like the law of supply and demand—instead of trying to accumulate more of it through populist policies like price controls that tend to aggravate rather than solve the problem.

Menstrual Cramps: Masakit Pag-Regla

Kung ikaw ay babae malamang na ikaw ay makararanas ng menstrual cramps o pananakit ng puson. Sa medikal na tawag ay dysmenorrhea.

Ang nakababagot, nakagagambala at sobrang pananakit ng puson ay nabubuo sa ibabang bahagi ng tiyan at gayun din sa likod at hita. Ang iba naman ay nakararanas pa ng pagduduwal, pagsusuka, pagtatae, pagpapawis at pagkahilo.

Marami sa kababaihan ay nakararanas ng menstrual cramps bago dumating o habang mayroong regla.

Ayon sa mga eksperto, ang pananakit ay dahil sa paghilab ng matris (uterus) na nagpapahiwatig na ang daluyan ng dugo ay naiipit. May kondisyon din tulad ng endometriosis at uterine fibroids na nagdudulot ng sakit sa puson.

Ang menstrual cramps ay nababawasan habang nagkaka-edad at nawawala pagkatapos manganak.

Tips para makaramdam ng ginhawa at maiwasan ang menstrual cramps:

1. Lagyan ng hot compress - Subukan magbabad sa bath tub ng may maligamgam na tubig o mag-apply ng hot compress (mainit na twalya) sa iyong ibabang bahagi ng tiyan.
2. Mag-ehersisyo - Nakatutulong ito na mabawasan ang sintomas ng menstrual cramps.

3. Pain relievers na panandalian lang – Pwede ang paracetamol, ibuprofen o naproxen kapag nagsimula na makaramdam ng cramps. Kung hindi naman ganoon kasakit, ay huwag na lang uminom ng pain relievers.

4. Dietary supplement - Ayon sa ilang pag-aaral na ang Vitamin E, thiamin, at omega-3 supplement ay maaaring makatulong na mabawasan ang sintomas ng menstrual cramps.

Kumonsulta sa iyong doktor kung ang menstrual cramps ay sobrang sakit, may kasamang lagnat, hindi nawawala, at nakagagambala sa iyo. Kumonsulta rin kung kayo ay naduduwal, nagsusuka, o mayroong kakaibang discharge o amoy sa pwerta.

It noted that about 1.6 million full-time wage and salary workers earning above the minimum wage may also indirectly benefit as a result of upward adjustments at the enterprise level arising from the correction of wage distortion.

The National Wages and Productivity Commission (NWPC) affirmed the wage order on Sept. 5. It will be published on Friday and shall take effect on Sept. 24 or 15 days from its publication.

Meanwhile, the DOLE said workers in the agriculture sector in the cities of Calaca in Batangas and Carmona in Cavite shall, however, receive an increase of PHP89 due to their reclassification from first class municipalities to component cities by virtue of Republic Act 11544 and 11938, respectively.

The increase, which considered the various wage determination criteria provided under Republic Act No. 6727 or the Wage Rationalization Act, resulted from several petitions filed by various labor groups seeking an increase in the daily minimum wage due to escalating prices of basic goods and commodities.

The Board, composed of representatives from the government, management and labor sectors, held a series of public hearings last Aug. 7 in Batangas, Aug. 9 in Cavite and Aug. 11 in Laguna, and wage deliberations on Aug. 16, 18, 23 and Sept. 1, 2023.

The new rates translate to a 9 to 11 percent increase from the prevailing daily minimum wage rates in the region and result in a comparable 23 percent increase in wage-related benefits covering 13th-month pay, service incentive leave, and social security benefits such as SSS, PhilHealth and Pag-IBIG.

As in any wage order, and as provided for in the NWPC Omnibus Rules on Minimum Wage Determination, retail/service establishments regularly employing not more than 10 workers, and enterprises affected by natural calamities and/or human-induced disasters may apply to the RTWPB for exemption from the wage increase.

Barangay Micro Business Enterprises (BMBEs) are not covered by the minimum wage law pursuant to Republic Act No. 9178 [2002].

For exemption applications and further clarifications on the wage order, the RTWPB may also be reached through its email address rtwpb@pnlrshd.com

The last wage order for workers in private establishments in the region was issued on May 30, 2022 and took effect on June 30, 2022.

Proposed wage adjustment in Bicol

RTWPB - Region V is set to hold a public hearing in Legazpi City early next month for the proposed salary adjustment in the region.

In a social media post Thursday, the Bicol wage board announced that it is holding a public hearing at the Concourse Convention Center in Legazpi City, Albay, from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Oct. 2.

The public hearing is being conducted to allow all stakeholders to participate that will be affected by the wage adjustments.

Before the public hearing, the RTWPB - Region V said it will also hold several wage consultations in different parts of Bicol.

These are in Villa Isabel Hotel, Sorsogon City (Sept. 11), Freshco Beach Resort, Masbate City (Sept. 22), Lotus Blu Hotel, Naga City, Camarines Sur (Sept. 26), and Wiltan Hotel, Daet, Camarines Norte (Sept. 27). All the wage consultations shall also be held from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The last wage order issued by the Bicol wage board, which provided a PHP33 salary increase, took effect in June 2022.

Wage Order No. V-20 brought the daily minimum wage rate in the Bicol Region to PHP365. (PNA)

Jail accomplishments were presented, followed by the awarding of CPJ Personnel Performance Award and Appreciation Award, acknowledging the employees who excelled and performed their duties well, contributing to the overall success of CPJ.

Mr. Noel Alegre, emphasized the amount of time employees spent with their colleagues at work – 8 hours a day, 40 hours a week, 170 hours a month, longer than the times spent in their own homes.

Hence, he urged them to work harmoniously and anticipate better services that will be provided by the Cavite Provincial Jail in the coming years.

In closing, Mr. Ariel Cahigan imparted that the institution's role is not to suppress the freedom of persons deprived of liberty (PDLs), but to rehabilitate them to be better individuals in preparation to their reintegration to community.

Filled with engaging intermission numbers and parlor games, the PDLs enjoyed the 65th founding anniversary celebration.

Cavite Provincial Jail was founded in 1958 and evolved into a progressive institution that provides a supportive environment for PDLs, giving them hope, opportunities, and a pathway to a brighter future. - OPIO

National Standards for Drinking Water.

Engr. Esguerra also presented the features of SAFEWATRS which is an energy independent using its solar panels, batch type or semi-continuous compact and mobile water treatment system, has a capacity of 2000 liters per day, and is effective in the removal of chemicals and metals in water, making the post-processed water to be safe for consumption of the public.

Also mentioned is that the SAFEWATRS have no major differences from the other filtration and disinfection systems besides the disinfecting of saltwater as this technology can operate on rainwaters, spring waters, and turbid waters. One good thing about SAFEWATRS is that it was developed not for the agency to earn from it, rather it was developed mainly to help the communities.

To prove its effectiveness, this was already deployed to Bagong Silangan, Quezon City; Agoncillo, Batangas; Sto. Domingo, Ilocos Sur; San Clemente, Tarlac. Adding to that the said technology had its performance testing using the Laguna Lake water which resulted in an excellent rating following the Philippine National Standards for Drinking Water.

The plant is used for acne, tropic dermatitis and others. Although it is still under study and in its infantile stage, it has potential to be recommended for lupus and other ailments, according to Beltran.

Gomez meanwhile said that cannabis is being used as additives for dermatological purposes like cream with its CBD or cannabidiol, which is its second most prevalent active ingredient.

Both Beltran and Gomez said that cosmetics extracts from marijuana should not contain THC or tetrahydrocannabinol or the chemical that gets people 'high.'

CBD on the other hand, has no intoxicating effects and can treat a wide range of symptoms. (Nelson Santos-PAPI)

Senate approves bill revitalizing salt industry

THE Senate approved on third and final reading on Monday 11 a bill that seeks to give new life to the dying salt industry in the country.

With a unanimous vote, senators approved Senate Bill (SB) 2243, or the "Philippine Salt Industry Development Act."

Sen. Cynthia Villar, chairman of the Committee on Agriculture, Food and Agrarian Reform and principal sponsor of SB 2243, said passing the bill is the Senate's response to the plea for assistance of salt industry stakeholders to revitalize their dying sector.

Under the bill, a Philippine Salt Industry Development Roadmap, which shall include programs, projects and interventions for the development and management, research, processing, utilization, modernization and commercialization of Philippine salt, shall be formulated.

It shall also create the 16-member Philippine Salt Industry Development Council, headed by the Department of Agriculture (DA) Secretary.

Tariffs collected on imported salt will also be plowed back to the industry with the creation of the Salt Industry Development and Competitiveness Enhancement Fund (Sidcef).

For 10 years, the Sidcef shall be earmarked for the: provision of machinery and equipment, including sea water pumps, salt graders, salt harvesters, dump trucks and bagging machines, and salt iodization machines for beneficiaries who are into salt iodization (50 percent); establishment of salt farm warehouses and/or storage areas (40 percent); conduct of extension services (5 percent); and development of modern salt production and processing technology (5 percent).

Senate President Juan Miguel Zubiri, before expressing his intent to become one of the bill's co-authors, congratulated Villar and all coastal communities who will be able to produce salt again once the bill becomes law.

Majority Leader Emmanuel Joel Villanueva expressed his support and gratitude to colleagues for prioritizing one of his pet bills in the 19th Congress.

From the House of Representatives, Kabayan party-list Rep.

Ron Salo thanked and lauded the Senate for passing the salt industry revitalization bill.

"I thank and commend the Senate, particularly our co-champions Sen. Cynthia Villar, Sen. Joel Villanueva, Sen. Loren Legarda, and Sen. Ronald "Bato" Dela Rosa, for recognizing the importance of and passing the Salt Industry Revitalization Bill," Salo said.

Salo is one of the authors of House Bill 8278 — the House of Representatives' version of the measure that the chamber passed on third and final reading on May 29.

Salt iodization

Under the bill, importers, traders and distributors of imported food-grade salt that will undertake fortification shall comply with the iodization standards set by the Department of Health.

Also, the bill provides that iodization of salt that is not intended for human consumption or local food production, as well as artisanal salt, shall be rendered optional in the country.

SB 2243 also addresses the need to expand the current salt farms concentrated in Pangasinan and Mindoro.

Tasks

The bill tasks the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) and Bureau of Fisheries and Aquatic Resources (BFAR) to map out, identify and designate public lands, including portions of municipal waters, as salt production areas within 60 days from the passage of this act.

Public land for salt production shall also be leased for a 25-year period, renewable for another 25 years, for use as salt farms.

For this purpose, BFAR shall issue the Salt Production Tenurial Instrument, where cooperatives and associations of subsistence and small producers and farmers shall be given preferential treatment.

Citing a study by the National Fisheries Research and Development Institute, Villar noted that salt production at present only accounts for 16.78 percent, or 114,000 metric tons, of the 683,000 metric tons of annual demand.

"This implies the need to revitalize the dying salt industry. We need to meet the growing demand of Filipino households and the additional annual demand for 300,000 metric tons of salt as coconut fertilizer under the 2021 Coconut Farmers and Industry Trust Fund Act," Villar said. (WITH A REPORT FROM REINA C. TOLENTINO)

DSWD: OVER 400 RICE RETAILERS RECEIVED PBBM'S CASH GRANTS

More than 400 rice retailers from six areas in the Philippines affected by rice price caps have already received a cash grant from the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD) amounting to at least P7.5 million.

DSWD Secretary Rex Gatchalian said that they have already distributed cash grants to 474 small and micro rice retailers in the cities of San Juan, Caloocan, Navotas, Parañaque, and Quezon City and in the province of Zamboanga del Sur.

Gatchalian said that they expect the number of beneficiaries to increase in the coming days as they target to fast-track the distribution of cash assistance by September 14, or before the Commission on Elections (COMELEC) ban on public spending.

"Medyo maliit pa iyong catchment natin pero sa araw na ito hanggang sa 14th, lalaki at bibilis ito dahil simultaneous na ang payout natin sa iba't-ibang rehiyon at iba't-ibang mga highly urbanized cities," Gatchalian said during a weekly Palace briefing.

"Gusto ng Pangulo natin na makarating ang livelihood grant sa ating micro rice retailers sa mabilis na panahon ... ang importante sa amin na mabigay lahat kaagad ito dahil mag e-election ban din," he added.

President Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr. has ordered the distribution of PhP15,000 cash assistance to small rice retailers who were affected by the implementation of the mandated rice price caps on regular and well-milled rice nationwide through Executive Order (EO) No. 39.

Under the EO, the

mandated price ceiling on regular rice is PhP41.00 per kilogram while the mandated price cap on well-milled rice is PhP45.00 per kilogram.

With the President's directive, the Department of Trade and Industry (DTI) and the Department of Agriculture (DA) have started identifying the qualified beneficiaries of the government's cash grants.

The DSWD, on the other hand, is responsible for the distribution of cash assistance through its Sustainable Livelihood Program (SLP).

As the distribution of cash grants continues, Gatchalian clarified that small rice retailers who were disqualified from receiving cash grants may file an appeal online where the details and other information were posted.

He added that the DTI has also set up its "grievance desk" for small rice retailers.

"Let's say, feeling mo na dapat kasama ka pero nakaligtaan ka, pwede kang mag-apply online, nandoon na iyong mga detalye, or doon sa mga payment center, iyong kapag nagpi-payout kami, mayroon ding grievance desk na itinaguyod ang DTI," Gatchalian said.

"So kapag pumunta doon iyong isang tao at sinasabi niya, 'Ako ay rice retailer. Bakit wala ako dito?' kaagad naming kina-capture iyong data ng DTI, ibi-verify then ipapasa ulit sa DSWD," he added.

Gatchalian asked small rice retailers to monitor the schedule of the payout in their area so that they will not miss the distribution of assistance intended for them. | PND

The resource person, Engr. Reynaldo L. Esguerra, Chief Science Research Specialist at the DOST-Industrial Technology Development Institute (DOST-ITDI), Environmental and Biotechnology Division, introduced the Emergency Disinfection System of Drinking Water with his knowledge and commitment.

As a result of typhoons, flooding, earthquakes, breakouts, etc., there has been a dearth of sources of drinking water, and this groundbreaking technology has begun to offer a solution. In response, DOST-ITDI announced the SAFEWTRS Upgraded Emergency Disinfection System (UPEDS), a portable, manually controlled, solar-powered emergency drinking water system with a capacity of up to 2000 liters of safe drinking water for 9 hours.

The decision to change the name of UPEDS to SAFEWTRS was made in August 2023 after it became clear that access to safe drinking water is a problem that affects many people on a regular basis rather than just in times of emergency. In addition to addressing the drinking water scarcity, this technology complies with the strict requirements outlined in the Philippine
